Elba City Council extensively discusses multi-million dollar sewer upgrade project

by Ferrin Cox, Publisher

The Elba City Council moved through the itemized portion of the meeting agenda Monday evening, Aug. 13, rather fast.

Council members then spent a considerable amount of time listening to an update on the huge proposed upgrade of the Elba sewer system.

Mayor Mickey Murdock explained the 12 segments of the multi million-dollar project, still in the planning stages, but already approved by USDA for funding. Of course, the downtown area will be a major part of the project but others highlighted by Murdock included Mulberry Heights area, Airport Road, and 203 Bypass from the shopping center East to Taylor Mill Road.

Murdock and Attorney Bart Boothe explained a 'Legal Services Agreement' that is required by USDA before funding plans can move forward. This designates the limits of how much the government expects the legal work to cost. The council approved the $20,000 agreement.

A formal announcement of the project will be scheduled at a later date, in conjunction with the USDA staff.

Code Enforcement Officer William Worthington updated council members on the ongoing project to clean up Elba. He reported that several pieces of property were in the process of having the dangerous buildings removed and the lots leveled. Several others are scheduled to begin the cleanup process in the next few weeks.

Worthington recommended the city council increase the budget for this work in the upcoming budget year. He noted it would take many years to complete the project without this stepped up funding. Each time a building is torn down and the debris hauled to an approved dump site, it costs someone several thousand dollars.

If the property owner does not step up and get this work done, the city pays the bill and files a lien against the property. To clear the property title this lien must be satisfied at the county tax office, either immediately or when the property sells in the future.

The council members indicated they wanted the work to move forward and noted there is funding set aside for the next round of clean-up.

The city council also discussed moving forward with the proposed 'dog park'. There is $5,000 in a fund for this work but estimates are that the total cost will be between $12,000 and $15,000. That will include fencing for the area, concrete pads, watering area, shaded area, etc.

No formal decision has been made on the location of the facility, but the area most mentioned during the meeting was on the flat area East of the new splash pad parking lot.

The routine parts of the council meeting included approving payment of $162,090.87 in monthly bills, a positive report from Police Chief Leslie Hussey, street department progress on patching pot holes (ten tons of asphalt) and street repair updates from Assistant City Clerk Pat Boothe.

Boothe noted she is beginning to meet with department heads to get their "wish list" for the upcoming budget hearings as the council moves into the fiscal year 2018-19.

The council also approved a resolution to move forward with the legal paperwork on Haynes Ambulance taking over the duties of the Coffee County EMS.

The next meeting for the Elba City Council will be Monday, Aug. 27, at 5:30 p.m. at Elba City Hall. The council meets twice per month. Meetings are open to the public and citizens are encouraged to attend.

THE ELBA VOLUNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT RESPONDED Monday, Aug. 13, to the scene of a fully engulfed house fire at 658 Thomas Street. The fire was reported to Elba Police dispatch at approximately 2:36 p.m. Monday afternoon. Upon arrival on scene, the Elba firefighters found the blaze to be well underway, but they were able to contain it rather quickly to prevent any further spreading. Above, two Elba firemen work together to extinguish the blaze from the front door of the home. No injuries were reported as a result of this fire.

Two mutual aid requests among Elba Fire Department responses last week

by Linda Hodge, Editor

The Elba Volunteer Fire Department responded to a handful of call last week prior to the house fire Monday at 658 Thomas Street [as shown in above photo].

On Thursday, Aug. 9, the Elba firemen were dispatched twice as mutual aid for other area fire departments.

An automobile accident occurred just prior to 7 p.m. at 6713 County Road 239. The vehicle reported rolled over in this accident and a person was ejected from the vehicle.

Around 7:30 p.m., the Zion Chapel Volunteer Fire Department requested assistance from the Elba Fire Department to contain a fuel leak at this accident scene.

The injured person was airlifted to an area hospital.

Nearly two hours later, at 9:15 p.m. last Thursday night, the Elba Fire Department was again dispatched as mutual aid. This time it was to assist the Kinston Volunteer Fire Department with a structure fire at 6 County Road 415. Reportedly, the structure on fire was a shed behind the residence.

The Elba FD responded to two more calls on Friday, Aug. 10th. The first was a request to set up a landing zone for Haynes LifeFlight just after 9 a.m.

The second call of the day last Friday for the Elba firemen was due to strong thunderstorms that moved through the area that evening. Reportedly, the storm knocked a power line down on tree limbs across from 219 Trammill St., and a fire started. The firefighters responded and quickly contained that fire.

Coffee County Commission approves requests from engineer's office

by Linda Hodge, Editor

The Coffee County Commission met Monday morning, Aug. 13, in New Brockton, and commissioners approved several requests from the engineer's office.

Assistant county engineer Marty Lentz addressed commissioners with the requests. Lentz soon will take over as the county engineer with current engineer Randy Tindell slated for retirement.

Lentz first got approval from commissioners to seek bids for pre-event debris removal and for the annual plant mix bid.

The debris removal bid is one that is in place in case of major weather events that require debris removal. Having this pre-event debris removal bid in place allows the county to move forward more quickly with the work following such an event.

Lentz told commissioners that the engineer's office recently had purchased a new copy machine. Therefore, he asked for permission to declare the older copy machine as surplus and allow for sell of it on GovDeals.com.

This request was approved.

The third request from Lentz on Monday morning involved a subdivision plat in the Goodman community.

Lentz said the subdivision, Goodman Acres, is on County Road 606. He said the county had received a plat for it, but he requested a variance from the normal regulations due to some extenuating circumstances. Lentz said these circumstances were beyond the new owners control.

The subdivision actually started in 2004, under a different name, and at that time subdivision regulations allowed for open ditches or non-curving gutter streets, according to Lentz. He said the owner at that time did not follow through with final platting, and it has since sold a couple of times.

Lentz said the new owner wants to complete the subdivision, and that owner was requested the waiver or variance because the regulations changed in 2007 after some of the property already was developed at the past regulation standards.

Lentz said some of the lots meet the current regulations but some do not.

"I do recommend the variance be granted as it does not pose a threat to safety of the traveling public to have open ditches,"

DAD GETS ADVISE FROM SON...The Elba Country Club held its annual Ticket Tournament last weekend, and had a huge turnout for the event. Reports were that not only was lots of golf enjoyed, but everyone had fun time too! Above, Robbie Curran listens intently as his son, Merrill, provides advise on the next shot. Additional photos from the event can be found on Page 10.

CCBOE Budget Hearings

The Coffee County Board of Education will hold the first public hearing to present the system-wide budget for Fiscal Year 2019 on Thursday, Sept. 6, at 5:30 p.m. The budget hearing will be held at the Board of Education Administrative Office, 400 Reddoch Hill Road, Elba, Ala. during the regularly scheduled board meeting.

A special board meeting and second public hearing will be held at 12 noon on Thursday, Sept. 13, at the Board of Education Administrative Office, 400 Reddoch Hill Road, Elba.

Parents, teachers and interested citizens may attend these budget hearings. Budget forms will be available at the Coffee County Board of Education Superintendent's Office prior to the hearings.

"To get the full value of a joy you must have someone to divide it with." - Mark Twain

U. S. Representative Nancy Pelosi, of California, is reportedly telling Democrat candidates, "Say whatever it takes to win today." She wants to again be Speaker of the House, but first Democrats must win voting control of the House. Nationwide her name and ultra liberal ideas are not the most popular around. However she keeps winning re-election in her home state

In Florida a candidate for the Florida legislature got caught announcing her college degree that didn't really exist. This has not stopped her from campaigning . . . she is just adding a promise that from now on she will "lead by example". Folks in South Florida now have a choice, one frankly that we like. This candidate has been caught with her misstatements and 'fessed up. We don't even know the names of her opposition, but wonder what their untold secret might be. So, here voters have an unknown(s) and a known, confessed fibber. Recently one of our children returned some past comments that came out of our mouth about "sticking with the devil you know, rather than trying to catch the other one." That could very well apply in this case. However we will let the voters of Manatee and Sarasota counties make this decision.

The City of Elba is moving forward with a massive sewer upgrade program. It is being backed by a wonderful federal grant, coupled with a long-term (40 year) low interest loan. This upgrade is badly needed in Elba and the success of getting such a large grant/loan package has caused more than one city official in other communities to turn green with envy. However before the massive sewer line replacement is over, there will be months of aggravation due to dug up sewer lines in the streets and just off the streets. We saw this in the 60's during a major sewer extension project in Elba. The disrupted streets even got into the middle of a local election.

"The best laid plans of men and mice." Most of us have heard that line and know that something must not have worked out as planned. Well you are hearing it from us this week. We have recently had an issue with the Alabama Pact plan . . . the one that was designed to have a child's college tuition paid in advance. Well when grandchild Number One got to Tuscaloosa a couple of weeks ago with all the necessary paperwork granddaddy had saved for the past 18 years . . . the sad news was that the state folks couldn't find any reference to her in their computer! With the deadline looming for paying admission fees, her parents had no choice but to write the checks. Hopefully all is ending well as yours truly sent copies of a cancelled check, letters from THEM confirming "paid in full", etc. Well on Monday a phone call from the Pact folks in Montgomery acknowledged they had "found" her! Of course it was a computer glitch, and everyone suspected as much. Still there was that sinking feeling in the pit of the stomach every time the image of the dollar amount on those annual "paid in full" letters flashed before our eyes. We strongly advise everyone with one of those prepaid college plans to save every scrap of paper you get relating to the account. You never know just how important it could ultimately be to your cause.

Great suffering can lead to a great blessing

by R.A. Mathews

Great suffering can lead to a great blessing.

President Recep Erdogan of Turkey fears the spread of Christianity in his country. Turkey's indictment of Christian missionary Andrew Brunson was for trying to convert Kurds in Turkey and engaging in "missionary activities." That's according to a recent report in the Los Angeles Times.

Brunson, an obscure Presbyterian pastor from North Carolina, had lived quietly in Turkey for 20 years, pastoring a church and raising his three children with his wife.

In 2016, after a bloody coup attempt, Erdogan arrested 50,000 suspected revolutionaries, including Americans. Brunson was one of them.

The pastor languished in a prison cell for nearly two years until his first hearing last month. Obviously, President Erdogan didn't anticipate the international media spotlighting Pastor Brunson, sending his Christian message across Turkey and around the world. But that's what happened.

Turkey is an American ally, and Brunson was supposed to be extradited to the U.S. following his hearing. Instead, the 50-year-old pastor, in failing health, was placed on house arrest.

Riled up, President Trump imposed economic sanctions on two Turkish ministers. He added tariffs last week. Both tipped Turkey's already shaky economy into an economic meltdown on Friday.

Brunson told the international media, "The disciples of Jesus suffered in His name—now it is my turn."

Listen, that's pretty exciting. Brunson has a small church of 20. The chance to speak of Jesus to a world-wide audience is a blessing few pastors will ever know!

Brunson's statement probably refers to Paul's suffering. And get this, although the two missionaries lived 2,000 years apart, Brunson stands on the same soil where Paul saved souls for Christ.

I bet President Erdogan knows this.

So where's Turkey? Think of sailing the Mediterranean Sea. At the far end you'd bump into Israel or into Lebanon and Syria which sit just above Israel. If you were to turn and sail due north, you'd hit Turkey and the city of Tarsus, where Paul was born.

Paul's letters to the Galatians, Colossians, and Ephesians went to churches located in present-day Turkey.

In fact, Paul's first missionary trip included six cities spread across present-day Turkey: Perga, Antioch, Iconium, Lystra, Derbe, and Pisidia. It's amazing.

Lystra is perhaps the most important.

On this first trip, Paul learns of a deadly plot against him in Iconium and quickly leaves for Lystra. While preaching to the crowds there, Paul eyes a cripple.

"Stand up!" Paul shouts.

The man then jumps up and walks. Suddenly, the crowds believe Paul and Barnabas are the gods Zeus and Hermes and try to worship them.

Paul and Barnabas immediately shout for the people to turn from these worthless ideas and believe in the living God.

But mankind is fickle. Soon, Jews from Iconium show up in Lystra and turn the crowds against Paul. He's violently stoned and his lifeless body dragged from the city. Acts 14:19

Stoning still occurs today. One doctor said even if you could get the victim to an emergency room, he'd die from massive internal bleeding.

After Paul's stoning, the disciples gather around him. But Paul isn't dead. He miraculously gets up, returns to Lystra, and travels to another town the next day.

Obviously, Paul's time in Lystra wasn't a success. But that's not where this story ends.

Paul returns to Lystra and tells believers they'll face "many tribulations." Perhaps he wanted to encourage them in the face of his stoning.

Acts 14:21-22

That's not the end either. Paul's suffering deepens his commitment to gratefulness. He says, "Give thanks in all circumstances for this is the will of God..." 1Thessalonians 5:18

Paul tells the Romans: "For those who love God, all things work together for good..." 8:28

Ultimately, Paul returns again to Lystra. This time he meets Timothy who joins his missionary team. Timothy will prove to be one of Paul's greatest blessings—Paul ultimately calls Timothy "my son," saying, "I have no one like him." Timothy 1:2, Philippians 2:20

You and I probably won't end up in a Turkish prison, but we'll each experience suffering. Remember the Apostle Paul and Andrew Bronson. Draw close to God in gratefulness and faith, knowing He will guide you.

Great suffering can lead to a great blessing.

Lentz said. "Since this is a unique situation, you would not be setting a precedent for the future. There is no other [subdivision] like it in the county."

Commissioners voted unanimously to approve the request.

Coffee County EMA deputy director Grant Lyons said the annual Emergency Prep Fair is being planned for Saturday, Sept. 8, at the Enterprise Civic Center. He said this is a big event where first responders come out and demonstrate their gear, and first aid and CPR demonstrations are provided, along with many other activities.

Lyons said the event is free to attend, and the overall goal is to build community preparedness.

Coffee County Extension Office coordinator Gavin Mauldin updated commissioners on a couple of upcoming activities for the extension office.

A big one is the annual Farm City Petting Zoo. He said it would be conducted a bit different this year. A first event would be held Sept. 11th at the Farm Center complex in New Brockton for Elba City and Coffee County Schools while another petting zoo would be set up Sept. 25th in Enterprise for school children at Enterprise City Schools.

Commissioners recessed from their meeting to allow for a budget hearing to be held Monday. This was the first of the budget hearings that will be held by commissioners over coming weeks as the county prepares its Fiscal Year 2019 budget proposal.

The next regular meeting for Coffee County Commissioners will be Monday, Aug. 27, at 9 a.m. in the community room of the county complex in New Brockton.

Southeast Alabama RPO planning local public forum meeting for Aug. 20th meeting in New Brockton, Ala.

The Southeast Alabama Rural Planning Organization (RPO) will hold the following meetings:

- Coffee County on Monday, August 20, at 3 p.m. Meeting will be held in the Coffee County Community Room in New Brockton, Ala.

- The Policy Committee and Technical Coordinating Committee (TCC) will meet Wednesday, August 29, at 10 a.m. - Houston County Administration Building (Dothan), 6th Floor Conference Room

The scope of the meetings is to discuss transportation safety issues, regional transportation project updates, and coordinated public transportation issues, including the regional coordinated transportation public transit plan, which identifies transportation needs of individuals with disabilities, older adults, and people with low incomes, provides strategies for meeting these local needs, and prioritizes transportation services for funding and implementation.

The RPO was established to develop a transportation planning process for the rural areas of southeastern Alabama and provides a formal link between the Alabama Department of Transportation (ALDOT) and the local governments.

The counties served by the RPO include Barbour, Coffee, Covington, and areas of Dale, Geneva, Henry, and Houston not served by the Southeast Wiregrass Area Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO). The RPO provides government officials and citizens in these counties an opportunity to receive information and advise the ALDOT on road, bridge, and other transportation projects.

All of the meetings are open to the public. Anyone requiring special assistance should contact the SEARP&DC at least 48 hours prior to the meeting at (334) 794-4093.

Mosquito bite and other protection measures urged as West Nile and Zika virus reported in state cases

The Alabama Department of Public Health reports investigations of several cases of Zika and West Nile virus in Alabama residents.

"Mosquitoes can transmit viruses when they bite, causing illnesses that range from mild to severe or even fatal," according to Sherri Davidson, interim state epidemiologist.

Infection with the Zika virus causes only mild symptoms in the majority of the cases, but the biggest risk is to pregnant women. Zika is now known to cause birth defects and other poor pregnancy-related outcomes if infection occurs during pregnancy.

To date in Alabama, the Zika virus has only been identified in individuals known to have traveled to areas where Zika is known to be endemic. There has been no local transmission.

Luckily, there are several things one can do to lower the risk of disease.

Dr. Dee Jones, state public health veterinarian, says, "The best way to avoid getting a disease from a mosquito is to reduce the risk of being bitten."

One can help keep mosquitoes off the skin and out of the yard by following these recommendations from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC):

- When going outdoors, use EPA-registered repellents containing 20 percent DEET on skin or permethrin on clothes. Follow label instructions carefully when using any repellent. Repellents should not be used on infants less than 2 months old.

- Wear loose-fitting long sleeves and long pants.

- Install or repair screens on windows and doors. Use air-conditioning, if available.

- Empty standing water from items outside homes such as flowerpots, buckets, old tires and children's pools.

- Clean clogged gutters and clear drainage ditches and pipes of debris. Public health environmentalists often conduct courtesy yard inspections in neighborhoods to help educate the public on mosquito control around the home and mosquito bite prevention.

MARK HARRISON HOLT SR.

Wednesday, Aug. 8, 2018, in his favorite place in the world, the recliner on the back porch of his house. His wife of 61 years was by his side.

Mark was born Feb. 5, 1930, in Opelika, Ala., to Thomas Daniel and Lillian Allen Holt. He lived in Opelika until he joined the Air Force in 1950, where he trained and served as a meteorologist for five years. He then went to Auburn University on the GI Bill, and there met the love of his life, Lois Jones. Mark earned a degree in personnel management and worked in Memphis, Tenn., Blakely, Ga., Ashdown, Ark., and Demopolis, Ala., before settling in Elba in 1976.

A memorial service was held Aug. 11, 2018 at the Elba United Methodist Church with the Reverend Stanley Carter officiating. In lieu of flowers, the family requests contributions to the Music Fund of the Elba United Methodist Church.

Mark was preceded in death by his daughter, Martha Holt Coleman; and siblings, Doris Holt Godfrey, Tom Allen Holt, Carolyn Holt Chafin, Donnie Holt, and Glen "Bye-Bye" Holt.

Survivors include his wife: Lois Holt, Elba; four children: Mark Harrison Holt Jr. (wife Nancy), Carol Holt Foster (husband Jeff), Angie Holt, and Tom Holt (wife Elaine); son-in-law: Mark Coleman; grandson: Bill Crawford; granddaughters: Maeve Foster and Claire Foster; sister: Beverly Holt Hodge; and numerous in-laws and friends.

Alabama Aviation College Student Support Services donates items to homeless

Alabama Aviation College Student Support Services (SSS) participants donated dozens of items for homeless individuals living in the southeastern region to the Southeast Alabama Coalition for the Homeless (SEACH) on Tuesday, July 31.

The items, collected over the summer semester at the college, included canned foods and dry goods, clothing, bags, and more. Vickie Alleman, SEACH president, picked up the items from the Ozark campus.

According to Lesia Grice, the SSS Career/Transfer coordinator on the aviation campus, the students picked the community service project based on a newspaper article in The Dothan Eagle regarding SEACH's "Spring Stand Down" event. The project is among at least three SSS has led within the last two years.

Other projects included dedicating hours and supplies to the Ozark Dale County Humane Society and donating school supplies and toiletries to area students and families.

Alabama was estimated last year to have a homeless population of 3,793, with at least 294 of those individuals ranging in age from 18-24, according to the U.S. Interagency Council on Homelessness. SEACH estimated that more than 375 residents are homeless in the southeastern region alone.

Many of the SSS students were eager to assist in the project.

"Today felt really good," said Phyllis Hester, an SSS Advisory Board member on the aviation campus. "I am really proud to see what we can do when we work together."

Student Support Services at Enterprise State Community College have existed as a grant-funded, Department of Education TRIO program since 1978, providing nearly 40 years of continuous service for students through academic advisement and tutoring; financial aid and economic literacy; transfer services; campus tours; exposure to cultural events; mentoring; and other individualized counseling needs.

Enterprise State Community College is a comprehensive community college which serves more than 2,800 students annually between its Enterprise campuses and the Alabama Aviation College in Andalusia and Ozark. The AAC currently fulfills the Alabama Community College System's mission for aviation maintenance training statewide.

Enterprise Pediatric Clinic among those participating in ADPH program promoting healthy bedtime routines

Good oral hygiene, reading and regular bedtimes are three simple life skills that pediatricians in 12 Alabama practices are reinforcing through "Brush, Book, Bed" (BBB), a new statewide program of the Alabama Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics (AL-AAP) and its early literacy arm, Reach Out and Read-Alabama (ROR-AL).

Made possible by a grant from the DentaQuest Foundation, along with in-kind support from the Alabama Department of Public Health's Oral Health Division, the program is providing families at well-child visits with materials in hand. These total 6,000 age-appropriate books, stickers, a toothbrush, toothpaste and floss—500 kits to each of the pediatric Associate Degree Nursing and Practical Nursing graduates received their nursing pins and participated in the traditional candle lighting ceremony. Graduates take the Nurses' Pledge before beginning their healthcare careers.

WCC honors most recent nursing graduates in pinning ceremony

Wallace Community College - Dothan recently conferred credentials upon summer 2018 graduates of the associate degree and practical nursing programs.

The graduates, who represent students from the Sparks Campus in Eufaula and the Wallace Campus in Dothan, will help fill employment gaps in the local healthcare workforce. Since the first graduating class in 1953, the practical nursing program has produced over 4,000 graduates. The associate degree program has graduated over 4,300 nurses since the initial 1971 class.

In addition to 241 nursing graduates, 154 students have graduated this academic year from the College's Allied Health programs, including Emergency Medical Services, Medical Assisting, Physical Therapist Assistant, Radiologic Technology, and Respiratory Therapist.

Since the inaugural graduating class in 1953, health programs at Wallace Community College have combined to place almost 14,200 healthcare graduates into the workforce of the Wiregrass area.

offices. These items are to remind families of the need to complete the BBB routine each night to achieve optimal oral health for their children.

Participating pediatric offices in the program are Charles Henderson Child Health Center, Troy; Dothan Pediatric Clinic; Enterprise Pediatric Clinic; Eufaula Pediatric Clinic; Gadsden Pediatric Clinic; Model City Pediatrics, Anniston; Ozark Pediatric Clinic; Partners in Pediatrics, Montgomery; USA Family Medicine, Mobile; West Alabama Pediatrics, Tuscaloosa; Pediatrics West Bessemer; and Pediatrics West McAdory, Bessemer.

"Appropriate early oral health prevention, intervention and education are needed to prevent dental decay, which in Alabama is twice that of the national rate, and those children particularly at risk for dental caries are those under 3 years of age," said State Dental Director Dr. Tommy Johnson. "Because pediatricians and other child health professionals are most likely to encounter new mothers and infants, it is essential that they educate parents on the prevention of dental decay." According to a recent article in Parents magazine, bedtime stories have long been known to foster parent-child bonds and prepare children for sleep. But lately, researchers have attached other powers to this nighttime routine; parents reading to their child are actually boosting the child's brain development.

The evidence-based Reach Out and Read program, administered by 60 pediatric practices and clinics in 30 counties across Alabama, builds on the unique relationship between parents and medical providers to develop critical early reading skills in children, beginning in infancy. During regular visits with the doctor, families grow to understand the powerful role they play in supporting their children's development, early language and literacy at home. ROR-AL's ninth annual "Rx for Summer Reading" campaign is currently underway and complementing BBB by promoting the importance of bedtime routines through the children's book, Goodnight, Daniel Tiger.

KNOW WHEN TO STOP

Each year on the fourth of July the Nathan's Famous Hot Dog Company sponsors a hot dog eating contest.

In 2013 Joey Chestnut won the competition for the seventh year in a row, setting a new record by eating 69 hot dogs and buns in just ten minutes. The second runner up "only" managed to eat 51.

According to news reports, Chestnut received a prize of $10,000 for his eating performance, and consumed over 20,000 calories during his eating spree.

Few of us are in danger of eating seventy hot dogs in one day, let alone nearly seven a minute for ten minutes straight. And yet we live in a world where "enough" is never enough.

Many people devote their lives to acquiring wealth and possessions, living with a focus only on the temporal. As a result, rather than living in contentment, they live in a perpetual state of dissatisfaction. They struggle to get the latest and biggest and newest toys and never enjoy a moment of peace.

Paul wrote in Philippians chapter 4 that he learned to be content in all things. His contentment came from a relationship with Jesus Christ.

"Hast thou found honey? Eat so much as is sufficient for thee, lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it. Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbour's house; lest he be weary of thee, and so hate thee."—Proverbs 25:16-17

Make sure pre-teens and teens get vaccines

Parents, a new school year is beginning.

The Alabama Department of Public Health reminds all it is time for parents to make sure their children have everything they need to protect them as they return to school. In addition to pencils, paper and other classroom essentials, vaccination should be included on every checklist.

Children are susceptible to certain vaccine-preventable diseases as they move into adolescence, making it all the more important to keep their immunizations current and up to date. There are four recommended vaccinations for preteens and teens: Tdap, HPV, meningococcal and influenza.

By nature, parents want to protect and shield their children from any hurt, harm or danger as much as humanly possible; the HPV vaccine is one sure way to protect them from preventable cancers. The HPV vaccine (Gardasil) protects against over half a dozen types of cancers including cervical, penile and oropharyngeal.

Join the Arbor Day Foundation in August and get free trees

Everyone who joins the nonprofit Arbor Day Foundation with a $10 donation will receive 10 free Colorado blue spruce trees or 10 white flowering dogwood trees through the Foundation's Trees for America campaign.

The trees will be shipped postpaid between October 15 and December 10, depending on the right time for planting in each member's area. The 6- to 12-inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

"Colorado blue spruce trees truly provide year-round beauty for any landscape," said Matt Harris, chief executive of the Arbor Day Foundation. "Dogwood trees will add color and beauty to your yard throughout the year, with their showy spring flowers, scarlet autumn foliage, and red berries that attract songbirds in the winter."

New members of the Arbor Day Foundation will also receive The Tree Book, which includes information about tree planting and care, and a subscription to Arbor Day, the Foundation's bimonthly publication.

To receive the free Colorado blue spruce trees, send a $10 membership contribution to: Ten Free Blue Spruces OR Ten Free Dogwood, Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Ave., Nebraska City, NE 68410, by August 31, 2018, or join online at arbor-day.org/august.

"There is no question that the vaccine works," said primary author Dr. Warner Huh, professor and director of the University of Alabama at Birmingham Division of Gynecologic Oncology and a senior scientist at the UAB Comprehensive Cancer Center.

When given at the recommended age and dose, the HPV vaccine is highly effective. Dependents aged 9 through 26 may be covered by their parents' health insurance. Parents should check with their insurance provider to see if the HPV vaccine is covered by their program. If it is not, the Vaccines for Children (VFC) Program is available to help families of eligible children get recommended vaccines.

Elba native wins Ms. Senior Clay County event...

Elba native Edna Smart (pictured, left) moved to Orange Park, Fla. and moved into the Astoria Assisted Living. She made a big splash shortly after arriving by being named Ms. Astoria Assisted Living by popular vote of the other residents. Smart went on from there to be named winner of the Ms. Senior Clay County event held at the famous Hilltop Inn in Orange Park.

Edna regularly keeps up with her Elba friends, whom she loves so much and still misses, through the pages of The Elba Clipper

Views From The Pressbox

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

Our little grandson Lawson made it through the first week of second grade with all green stars and was still smiling Friday afternoon as he came down the hall. My little man was truly happy to head back to school, and for now is having a ball leaning new things from his new teacher and being with friends.

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Tigers went out in pads one day last week and word from the coaches was that while it was a 'typical first day', the seniors stepped up both as leaders and at their positions and the team as a whole showed a real desire to do what it takes to be winners. There are still quite a few days in pads before the preseason game on Aug. 24 against a very talented team from Wicksburg, but hopes are high at Tigertown and everyone at the school is excited and ready to get started.

 There was nothing but excitement all around the area last week as all the area teams were hard at work. Almost 100 players reported for the first day at New Brockton as the Gamecocks welcomed in a big group of transfers from Enterprise, the folks up at Zion Chapel were all excited about the returnees at the Rebel camp and the belief that better days are just around the corner, down at Kinston the Bulldogs and their followers could barely hide the excitement as they prepare for what they feel could be their best season ever, and over at Brantley the Bulldogs and their fans are getting ready to prove once again that they are a 1A power year-in and year-out.

 While the football players are busy outside dodging each other and the raindrops, the sounds of balls bouncing in the gyms can be heard as the volleyball teams continued to prepare for their season openers. Elba has high hopes that the 2018 season will be the year the program turns things back around and chalks up some wins, while over at New Brockton it is business as usual with the goal of making it to state, up at Zion Chapel it is always hard work and determination that leads the way to success, down at Kinston there is lots of hard work going on with a trip to state always the ultimate goal, and over at Brantley spirits are high as always when it comes to sports and success. Yep, it looks like an exciting season on the court.

 The sports pages in the daily papers are filled with college football news, and while much of the news nationwide is about coaches being put on administrative leave, here in the South it is just about football. Alabama held its first scrimmage last weekend and Coach Saban bragged about the veterans and moaned about the newcomers, while over o the plains it looks like the Tigers have put all their marbles into the basket of their second-year quarterback. There is no doubt the Tide will be a team to watch as the season opens and we will all be surprised if it doesn't pile up lots of wins, but Auburn could be one injury away from finding out how Florida State felt a year ago after its quarterback went down. Time will tell. However, it is sure fun to live in the South and love football.

 In closing... As I was researching the upcoming high school season, it was odd to see that three of the five teams in the coverage area will have new coaches. For years there was little change among head coaches in football as folks like Mack Wood, David Lowery, Leavy Boutwell and others walked the sidelines. However, this year Pate Harrison will be leading the way at Elba, Roland Jones Jr. will be the head man at Brantley and George Kennedy will be the top dog down at Kinston. Hey, the times they are a changing, but that is what is interesting for an old sportswriter like me that has been around since leather helmets. Well, almost!

ALABAMA STATE CHAMPS proudly hold up their state flag after finishing play at the Dixie Softball World Series. The team was comprised of girls ages 12 and unde from Elba and New Brockton.

State champs make mark at World Series

The Alabama State Champions, consisting of players from Elba and New Brockton, competed at the 2018 Dixie Softball World Series recently at Alexandria, Louisiana, and battled through five days of stormy weather and took the field against a line-up of State Champions from across the Southeast United States to complete their historic season.

The Alabama champs opened World Series play against North Carolina and saw an early rally fall short in a 15-3 loss. North Carolina took advantage of walks and errors to jump out to a 5-0 lead in the top of the first inning, but Alabama bounced right back in the bottom of the inning and plated three runs to cut the deficit to 5-3.

Leadoff walks to Lizzie Everts and A'Lyric Whitfield sparked the first inning fireworks, while Aimee Senn delivered a clutch two-run double and scored on a base hit by Destinee Tidwell as Alabama made it clear it had come to win.

North Carolina added three runs in the second inning to up its lead to 8-3, stretched its lead to 9-3 in the third, and broke loose with six runs in the fourth inning to open up a big 15-3 advantage.

Alabama managed only two baserunners over the game's final three innings, with Danielle Tidwell and Madison Meeks both reaching on bases-on-balls, as the state champs fell into the losers bracket after the 15-3 loss.

The Alabama champs finally made it back to the field after two days of stormy weather, but again saw the rain take its toll as a five-hour rain delay cooled off the Bama bats and played a major role in a disappointing 20-17 defeat to Georgia.

Alabama's A'Lyric Whitfield took the ball inside the circle in the elimination contest and blanked Georgia through three innings as the champs broke loose at the plate and opened up a big 13-0 lead!

Consecutive singles by Lizzie Everts, A'Lyric Whitfield and Aimee Senn sparked an early outburst that saw Alabama plate four runs in the opening inning to grab a 4-0 lead. Everts and Senn were both forced out at the plate, but Whitfield crossed the plate for the game's first run, and Madison Meeks, Destinee Tidwell and Logan Faircloth all made their way around the bases as Alabama jumped out to a quick 4-0 lead.

Alabama continued to light up the scoreboard in the second inning as the champs scored seven runs to stretch their lead to 11-0.

A leadoff single off the bat of Caitlin Sullivan sparked the second inning fireworks, while Lizzie Everts, Aimee Senn, Madison Meeks, Destinee Tidwell, Logan Faircloth, Katelyn Little and Kellie Qualls all delivered rbi singles as the girls from Alabama took command!

A two-run double by Lizzie Everts knocked in Daven Cavanaugh and Kellie Qualls in the third inning to push Alabama's lead to 13-0, and put the state champs only three outs away from posting the win due to the lopsided score.

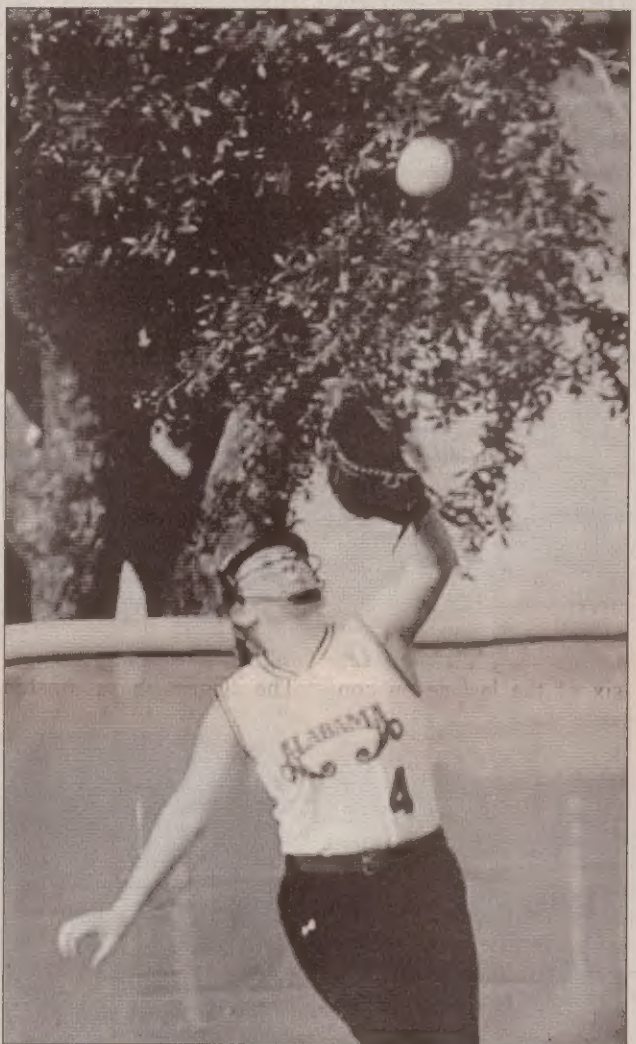

The Alabama explosion was dampened by a five-hour rain delay in the middle of the game; however, and while the state champs were still on top 13-0 when the rain stopped, it was Georgia that returned to the soggy field with a purpose as it combined seven hits with six hit batters and a couple of costly Alabama errors to plate 13 runs to pull even at 13-13.

Alabama stranded Aimee Senn on third base and Madison Meeks at second in the bottom of the inning as the score remained tied at 13-13, but Georgia continued its remarkable comeback in the fifth and plated seven additional runs to grab a 20-13 lead.

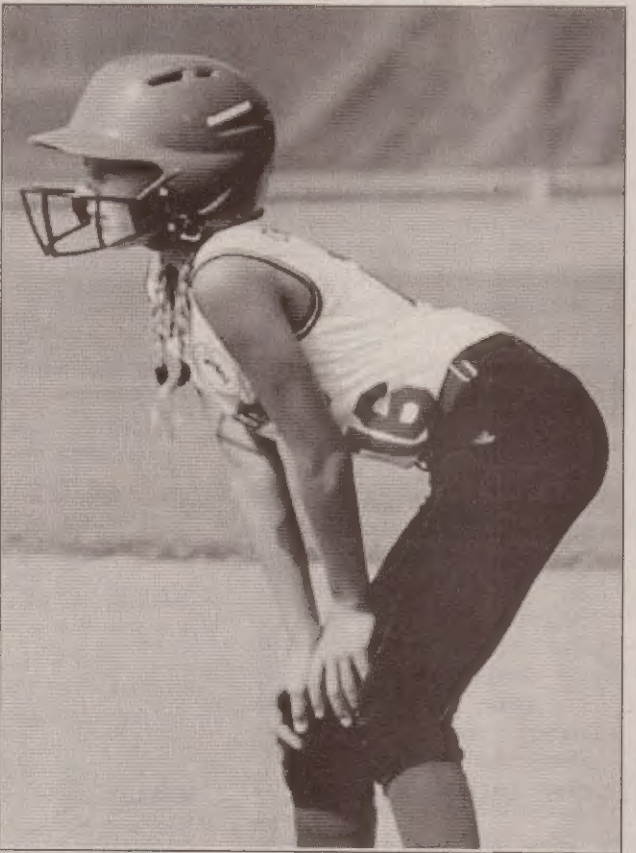

Alabama went down in order in the fifth and still trailed 20-13 heading into their final at-bat, but refused to give up and scored four runs in the final frame before watching the late rally fall short.

The sixth inning comeback attempt was sparked by a leadoff single by Kellie Qualls, while A'Lyric Whitfield reached on an infield single with two outs, and Aimee Senn followed with a two-run double to keep the Alabama hopes alive. Madison Meeks reached on an infield hit, and both Senn and Meeks scored on a clutch hit by Destinee Tidwell as the Bama girls pulled within 20-17. The rally ended when the next batter went down swinging, but after hours of rain and great softball action, Alabama was eliminated with the wild 20-17 loss.

"It was a great experience for not only the girls, but also the caches and fans," stated Alabama manager Johnny Senn. "It was great to watch the girls come together during the weeks of practice leading up to the tournament and to hear the parents and fans cheer as one at the World Series. It was a long summer and we had hoped to bring back the title, but everyone involved with the team found new friends during the long process and the girls discovered they could compete at the highest level. It was truly an honor to be a part of this team and I want to thank everyone that helped raise funds for the trip and made it all possible. It was something none of us will ever forget."

Aimee Senn led Alabama at the plate with 5 hits, 2 runs scored and 6 rbi's, while Madison Meeks added 4 hits, scored 3 runs and had 3 rbi's; Destinee Tidwell added 4 hits, scored 2 runs and had 2 rbi's; Lizzie Everts added 3 hits, scored 2 runs and had 2 rbi's; A'Lyric Whitfield added 2 hits, scored 4 runs and had 2 rbi's; Kellie Qualls added 2 hits, scored 3 runs and had 1 rbi; Logan Faircloth added 2 hits, scored 2 runs and had 2 rbi's; Daven Cavanaugh and Caitlin Sullivan both added 1 hit and scored 1 run; Katelyn Little scored 2 runs and had 1 rbi; and Danielle Tidwell and Emily Richardson both reached base but failed to score.

Zion Chapel Rebels host region favorites in important early season gridiron games

The Zion Chapel Rebels face another daunting task in the second year of Coach Johnny Bryant's tenure in one of the state's toughest 2A regions, but do host the two preseason favorites at Green Memorial Stadium in early-season action and also face three 1A foes in non-region play in what appears to be a favorable schedule.

Zion Chapel will kickoff the season on Aug. 24 when they take the field for a preseason clash against the Houston Academy Raiders, at home. It will be the first meeting between the two teams in 19 years, and while the Raiders have struggled to a 1-19 record the last two seasons, they have won the last eight meetings against the Rebels.

Zion Chapel will open the regular season on Aug. 31 when they travel to Red Level for a non-region contest against the 1A Tigers. It will be the first meeting between the two teams in seven years and only he third meeting ever, with the Rebels claiming a 35-29 win in the last meeting in 2011. The Tigers have struggled to 12 straight losing seasons and have posted three 0-10 records over the past six years.

Zion Chapel will swing into region play on Sept. 7 when it hosts the Goshen Eagles. The Eagles have won the last six match-ups in the series and 11 of the past contests, including a 55-09 win a year ago. The Eagles have a school record 12 games last season and have rolled up a 20-6 record the last three seasons.

Zion Chapel will remain home on Sept. 14 when they remain in region play and host the Luverne Tigers. The Rebels have dropped all six meetings against Luverne, including a 42-12 setback last season. The Tigers have advanced to the state playoffs a record 34 straight years and posted a 10-3 record last season.

Zion Chapel will hit the road for Lowndes County on Sept. 21 when they battle the Calhoun Tigers in a key region clash. The Rebels have won four straight games over their region rivals, including a 22-0 win last season. The Tigers are mired in a 31-game losing streak and last season scored only 12 points the entire season.

Zion Chapel will return home on Sept. 28 for a cross-county showdown against the 1A Kinston Bulldogs. The Rebels have dropped four of the last five contests to their longtime rivals, including a 56-22 loss a year ago. The Bulldogs bounced back from a 1-9 slate in 2016 to post a 5-5 record last season.

Zion Chapel will return to the region wars on Oct. 5 when they travel to Crenshaw County to tangle with the Highland Home Flying Squadron. The Rebels have dropped the last four meetings in the series, including a wild 47-35 setback a year ago. The Squadron snapped a three-season losing streak last year and averaged over 40 points a game in posting a 7-4 record.

Zion Chapel will remain on the road on Oct. 12 when they head back to Lowndes County for a region clash against the Central Lions. The Rebels have won two of the last three meetings against their region rivals, but were outscored 40-20 last season. Central has struggled to 13 straight losing seasons and since 2008 have a combined record of 7-90.

Zion Chapel will return home on Oct. 19 for a key region encounter again the Samson Tigers. It will mark the first meeting in six years between the new region rivals, with the Rebels dropping the last five contests, including a 17-13 decision back in 2011. The Tigers struggled to a 4-7 record last season

Zion Chapel will close out region play on Oct. 26 when they head across the county for a clash against the New Brockton Gamecocks. The Rebels have dropped the last five meetings with the Gamecocks, including a 47-0 defeat a year ago, and during the five-year drought has been outscored 258-11. The Gamecocks posted a 5-6 record last season after winning a total of 23 games the three previous years.

Zion Chapel will close out regular season action on Oct. 2 when they return home to host the 1A Pleasant Home Eagles. The Rebels have won two of the last three meetings with the Eagles, including a 27-22 win last season. The Eagles have managed to post only one winning season over the last six years, but have posted a combined record of 11-10 over the last two campaigns.

Kinston Bulldogs must be ready for pair of early season games against region powers

The Kinston Bulldogs will be looking for a trip to the state playoffs this season under new head coach George Kennedy and with three of their biggest region games set for Bulldog Stadium their confidence level is high for a big season ahead.

Kinston will open football action at home on Aug. 31 when they hit the field to meet the 2A Samson Tigers. The Bulldogs have lost three straight contests to their longtime rivals and six of the last seven contests, including a 28-25 loss last season. The Tigers have posted an 18-16 record the last three years and have advanced to the state playoffs each of the last three seasons.

Kinston will enter region play on Sept. 7 when they travel to Crenshaw County to tangle with the Brantley Bulldogs. The Bulldogs have lost the last 20 meetings to their longtime region rivals, including a 55-8 setback a year ago, and over the last six seasons have been outscored 235-14. Brantley has posted a 15-9 record the last two seasons after recording at least 10 wins each of the previous five years.

Kinston will return home on Sept. 14 when they host the Elba Tigers in a key region clash. It will be the first meeting between the two Coffee County neighbors since back in 1995, when the Tigers posted a 48-6 win. The Tigers moved down to the 1A ranks this season, over the past seven years have won two state championships and one state runner-up trophy, and over the last four years have posted a total of 42 wins.

Kinston will be on the road on Sept. 21 when they head over to the Crystal Springs Park for a region encounter against the Red Level Tigers. The Bulldogs have won five of the last eight meetings with their region rivals, including a big 44-0 win a year ago. The Tigers have posted three 0-10 seasons over the past six years and have suffered through 11 straight losing seasons.

Kinston will stay n the road on Sept. 28 when they head across Coffee County for a non-region clash against the Zion Chapel Rebels. The Bulldogs have posted wins in four of the last five contests against their county rivals, including a 56-22 win last season. The Rebels have struggled to six straight losing seasons and have made only one playoff appearance since 2006.

Kinston will return to the region wars on Oct. 5 when they host the McKenzie Tigers, at Bulldog Stadium. The Bulldogs have dropped four of the past five decisions to their region rivals, but did manage to claim a big 59-28 win a year ago. The Tigers suffered their first losing season in five years a year ago and allowed over 42 points a game in what was a rare

Kinston will head down to Covington County on Oct. 12 when they continue region play against the Pleasant Home Eagles. The Bulldogs have lost two straight in the series, including a wild 44-34 defeat a year ago. The Eagles have posted an 11-10 record over the last two years after going 1-19 the previous two seasons.

Kinston will be back at home and remain in region play on Oct. 19 when they host the Georgiana Panthers. The Bulldogs have lost the last four meetings against the Panthers, including a 60-8 decision a year ago, and have lost the last two years by a combined score of 110-8. The Panthers have won three straight region titles and have rolled up a 34-4 record during that span.

Kinston will close out region action at home on

Dates announced for shark fishing at Gulf State pier

The Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources announces that the following dates have been selected for managed shark fishing at the Gulf State Park Saltwater Fishing Pier: August 19, 21, 26 and 28.

The shark fishing will take place on the south end of the pier - called the octagon - from 7 p.m. until 7 a.m. the next morning on the selected Sundays and Tuesdays.

The octagon will close to routine use 30 minutes prior to these events, and reopen to routine use 30 minutes following them. During the events, the octagon area of the pier will be designated for the exclusive use of participating anglers and their designated assistants. The remainder of the pier will be open to anglers and other pier guests as normal.

The August managed shark-fishing events will allow for 15 anglers per occasion, with no more than one rod and reel per angler in use. Each angler may have one additional assistant, and anglers are encouraged to assist one another while fishing.

This allows for a maximum of 30 individuals on the octagon area during each event.

Angler gear shall allow for larger reel sizes, but otherwise remain the same as provided for under existing pier rules, and anglers are required to provide their own gear.

Registration for the shark-fishing events is ongoing and anglers will continue to be selected in the order in which applications are received. To register for participation, visit www.alapark.com/shark-fishing. Applicants will need to provide contact information for notification of selection and will be notified a week or more in
